Hunterdon County voters are reminded that Tuesday, November 3rd, is election day.

Voters can still drop vote by mail ballots off in secure drop boxes until 8 pm on November 3rd. Click here for the location of secure drop boxes.

Ballots can also be dropped off in person at the County Board of Elections Office, 71 Main Street, Flemington from 6 am to 8 pm, on November 3rd.

By order of the Governor, there is only one polling place in each community. Polls open 6 am to 8 pm. Click here for the location of polling places.

Those voting in person at a polling place will be given a provisional ballot on which to mark their votes. Provisional ballots are then placed by the voter in a sealed envelope and placed by the voter in a locked box, which can only be opened for counting at the Board of Elections Office, after November 10th.

Individual voters can drop vote by mail ballots at your polling place, however, voters can only drop off their own ballot. Voters cannot drop off their spouses', family members' or friends' ballots.
