

Great Raritan Workforce Development Board Offers Jobs Webinar April 7th And Drive-Thru Job Fair April 15th

Guest Speaker To Offer Job Seekers Advice And Answer Career Questions

The Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board is planning a free webinar, Wednesday, April 7th at 7 pm, featuring a guest speaker with senior executive work experience, to assist job seekers and offer skill tips for success, in addition to a drive- thru Job Fair on April 15th, Hunterdon County Commissioner Zach T. Rich has announced.

Commissioner Rich, liaison to the Workforce Development Board, said, "The Workforce Board works with employers who are seeking employees and holds periodic Job Opportunities Info Sessions and other vital employee webinars and meetings, virtually, which has been particularly important during the economic slide caused by the pandemic."

The April 7th webinar will help job seekers to get results during their career search. Senior Executive and author, Anne Corely Baum, will share advice about how to succeed on the job, avoiding common mistakes, using soft skills to stay on track at work and will be available to answer career-related questions. To register, please email info@thegrwdb.org

Commissioner Rich reported at the March 16th Board meeting, in conjunction with the state Department of Labor, the Workforce Development Board has offered several info sessions with local employers, including Kwenyan and Associates and Anita's Angels in Flemington, RathGibson in Branchburg, Amneal Pharmaceutical with several locations in the area, Krapf School Bus who operates in the area, and Power Container Corp in Franklin.

This is an extremely valuable resource for those looking for employment and I encourage those who are interested to take advantage of these opportunities."

The info sessions are announced on the Workforce Development website and can also be found on the Workforce Board's webpage on the county website.

The Workforce Board's drive-thru Job Fair on April 15th will run from 10 am to 2 pm at the Raritan Valley Community College and will offer more than 20 business and career-support agencies who have signed up to offer information. This is the second drive-thru Job Fair organized by the Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board. For more information, click here.

The Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board webpage on the county website offers valuable information: <https://www.co.hunterdon.nj.us/WorkforceDevelopment.html> or you can call 908-237-0016 to reach the Hunterdon County office directly.