

Forty Area Employers With Available Jobs At Hunterdon County Job Fair September 25th

More than 40 area employers with job openings are scheduled to attend the Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board's Hunterdon County Job Fair on Wednesday, September 25th from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., in the Hunterdon County Complex Assembly Room, at 314 Route 12, Raritan Township.

"The quality of companies that will be represented at the Fair demonstrates the diversity and strength of the Hunterdon economy and the jobs available represent genuine long-term opportunity for the local workforce," commented Hunterdon County Freeholder Matt Holt, the Board's Liaison for Economic Development, "We really are fortunate to have the corporate citizens that we do."

Businesses and organizations scheduled to be at the job fair include: 3M Company, Animal Alliance of Lambertville, Appliance Master, The Arc of Hunterdon County, Copper Hill Country Club, the County of Hunterdon, Creter Concrete, Custom Alloy Corp., Flemington Car & Truck Country, Hitran Corp., Hunterdon Central High School, Hunterdon Developmental Center, Hunterdon Healthcare, Hunterdon YMCA, Johanna Foods, Lowes, Magna-Power Electronics, MW Industries / Atlantic Spring, New York Life, QuVa Pharmaceutical, Readington Farms, Signarama, UNICOM Science & Technology Park, United States Postal Service, US Census 2020, Viking Pest Control and Wawa.

The 2019 Job Fair is being presented by the Greater Raritan Workforce Development Board (GRWDB), which serves Hunterdon and Somerset counties; the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development; the Greater Raritan One-Stop Career Center; and the Hunterdon County Chamber of Commerce.

"The upcoming workshop is designed to help jobseekers gain additional skills and knowledge in their search," said GRWDB Interim Director Paul Grzella. "Tips and information shared in the workshop are applicable for those searching for a job or looking to enhance their future job prospects."

Representatives from NORWESCAP Child and Family Resource Services, GoHunterdon, and the United Way of Hunterdon County are also scheduled to be in attendance.

For more information on the free workshops, participating employers and to stay informed on any updates to the participating employers list, visit www.thegrwdb.org/event/HCJobFair/.

Additionally, jobseekers can sign up for a weekly text alert that highlights individual recruiting events, career workshops and other workforce-related programs in Hunterdon and Somerset counties. Text "ONESTOP" to 565-12 on your mobile phone to subscribe.