

Newest Hunterdon Freeholder Sue Soloway Has Taxpayers' First Philosophy Matt Holt Takes Oath For Fifth Term

Hunterdon County's newest Freeholder, Susan Soloway, pledged to carry over to County government the taxpayers' first philosophy she applied during her service on the Franklin Township Committee, during remarks following her swearing in as a Freeholder by State Senator Michael Doherty.

Soloway, elected in November along with veteran Freeholder Matt Holt, stated, "I intend to work cooperatively with my Freeholder colleagues to continue the Board's efforts to hold in check the cost of government. I believe tax dollars are precious and must be used effectively, efficiently and sparingly."

Freeholder Holt, sworn into office for a fifth term, thanked his colleagues for their support during his term as Freeholder Director in 2018 and thanked the voters of Hunterdon County for their vote of confidence. "We are doing a great many things right to preserve the unique character and way of life in Hunterdon County and the voters recognize it," Holt said.

Soloway will serve as a member of the budget making Board of School Estimate for Raritan Valley Community College (RVCC), and as liaison to the County Departments of Human Services and Health Services and to the Chamber of Commerce. Soloway has resigned as an elected member of the Franklin Township Committee.

Holt will serve on the Board of School Estimate for both the County Vocational School and RVCC, and as liaison for the Department of Planning and Land Use and for Economic Development. He will continue his long service as the County's representative to the North Jersey Transportation Planning Authority.

Girl Scout Troop #81292 from Franklin Township led the Pledge of Allegiance and Reverend Nathan Tuckey, of the South Ridge Community Church in Clinton Township, provided the Invocation and Benediction during the proceedings.
