ACCLAMATION

from Evangelical Lutheran Worship, Setting 10

Al - le-lu - ia! Lord and Sav - ior: o - pen now your sav-ing word.

Let it burn like fire with-in us; speak un - til our hearts are stirred.

Al - le - lu - ia! Lord, we sing for the good news that you bring.

A short sermon is offered, after which a period of silence follows. The Presider then invites the people to stand (as they are able) and affirm their faith as follows.

All

We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in the heaven and earth is named. We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love. We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high. We believe in one God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD AND THE CHURCH

Gathered in Jesus, the bread of life, let us pray for the church and the world, saying: hear our prayer.

We pray for the Church. May we reveal Christ in word and action.
Let us pray to the Lord,
hear our prayer.

We pray for the world. May we come to live as one family.
Let us pray to the Lord,
hear our prayer.

We pray for our nation. May our lives be peaceful and just.
Let us pray to the Lord,
hear our prayer.

We pray for those who are hungry, homeless, and all in need. May all be given hope in the midst of adversity.
Let us pray to the Lord,
hear our prayer.

We pray for those who are sick. May we feel your grace and know your comfort when we suffer.
Let us pray to the Lord,
hear our prayer.

We pray for those who have died. May they know the joys of heaven.
Let us pray to the Lord,
hear our prayer.

We also pray for the people who suffer under the weight of this pandemic. Fill us with love toward our neighbor; as we strive for the common good; and strengthen those who labor for our health.

You may offer your own intercessions and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

The Presider concludes

Eternal God, hear the prayers we offer today and strengthen us to do your will. Amen.

Presider Lift up your hearts.
People We lift them to the Lord.
Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
People It is right to offer thanks and praise.

The Presider continues

It is indeed right, always and everywhere, to give thanks to you, the true and living God, through Jesus Christ. You are the source of life for all creation and you made us in your image.

In your love for us you sent your Son to be our Saviour. In the fullness of time he became incarnate, and suffered death on the cross. You raised him in triumph, and exalted him in glory. Through him you send your Holy Spirit upon your church and make us your people. And so, we proclaim your glory, as we sing

SANCTUS

Holy, Holy, Holy; No. 858; from WLP

The musical notation consists of three staves of music in common time (indicated by a '4' in the bottom right corner of each staff) and a key signature of one flat (indicated by a 'b' in the top left corner of each staff). The top staff is for the soprano voice, the middle staff for the alto voice, and the bottom staff for the bass voice. The lyrics are as follows:

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of power and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est. *Bless - ed is he who comes

The music continues on the next page.

The Presider continues

To you indeed be glory, Almighty God, because on the night before he died, your Son Jesus Christ took bread; when he had given you thanks, he broke it, gave it to his disciples and said: Take, eat, this is my body which is given for you; do this to remember me.

After supper he took the cup; when he had given you thanks, he gave it to them and said: This cup is the new covenant in my blood poured out for you; do this as often as you drink it to remember me.

Therefore, we proclaim the mystery of faith.

Christ has died, Christ is risen. Christ will come in glory.

Therefore, loving God, recalling now Christ's death and resurrection, we ask you to accept this our sacrifice of praise. Send your Holy Spirit upon us and our celebration, that we may be fed with the body and blood of your Son and be filled with your life and your goodness. Strengthen us to do your work, and to be your body in the world. Unite us in Christ and give us your peace.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom with you and the Holy Spirit be all honour and glory, now and forever. Amen.

At the end of the prayer, all say

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, and the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

BREAK THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated bread. A period of silence is kept; then the Presider says

We break the bread to share in the body of Christ.

People We, who are many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Gracious God, we love you above all things and are grateful that you are with us. Come spiritually into our hearts, unite our entire selves to you and never permit us to be separated from your presence. Amen.

Please stand

After Communion, the Presider invites the people to join in this prayer

Living God, in this sacrament we have shared in your eternal kingdom. May we forever serve you faithfully, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
