

ALL SAINTS EPISCOPAL CHURCH

Saturday@5

The Season after Pentecost

October 23, 2021 | 5:00 p.m.

Welcome to All Saints! This leaflet is designed to enable your full participation in the service. The people's responses are in bold. Rubrics are in blue and offer directions about the service. All persons seeking God are invited to receive communion at the Lord's Table.

LITURGICAL NOTE

In our reading from the Hebrew Scriptures, we hear the conclusion of the saga of Job. Today's Gospel is the familiar story of Jesus' healing of a blind beggar, Bartimaeus, on the road outside Jericho.

WELCOME

The Presider begins

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

People

And also with you.

The Presider then says an opening prayer

Let us pray. Eternal God, whose Son revealed your healing touch: strengthen our faith and empower us to serve you. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

Please be seated

PROCLAIM AND RESPOND TO THE WORD OF GOD

Lessons are presented from Job (42:1-6, 10-17) and the Gospel of Mark (10:46-52). The congregation sings a song between the two readings.

A short sermon is offered, after which a period of silence follows. The Presider then invites the people to stand (as they are able) and affirm their faith as follows.

All We believe in God the Father, from whom every family in the heaven and earth is named. We believe in God the Son, who lives in our hearts through faith, and fills us with his love. We believe in God the Holy Spirit, who strengthens us with power from on high. We believe in one God: Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.

PRAY FOR THE WORLD AND THE CHURCH

In these uncertain and difficult times, let us pray to the God of healing and justice. You may add your own prayers in the time after each petition, either silently or aloud.

We pray for the church. . .

We pray for the world. . .

We pray for our nation. . .

We pray for our families and friends. . .

We pray for those in need. . .

We pray for those who are sick or suffering. . .

We pray for those who have died. . .

You may offer additional concerns and thanksgivings, either silently or aloud.

The Presider concludes

In our time of need, may love abound. And in all of life, may we be ever mindful of the presence of the sacred among us. Amen.

EXCHANGE THE PEACE

Presider The Peace of Christ be always with you.

People And also with you.

If you wish to greet others, please do so without physical contact.

GIVE THANKS

Presider The Lord is here.

People God's Spirit is with us.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to offer thanks and praise.

The Presider continues

We give you thanks and praise, Almighty God, for the gift of a world full of wonder, and for our life which comes from you. By your power you sustain the universe.

You created us to love you with all our heart, and to love each other as ourselves, but we rebel against you by the evil that we do. In Jesus, your Son, you bring healing to our world and gather us into one great family. Therefore, with all who serve you on earth and in heaven, we praise your wonderful name, as we sing

We give you thanks and praise, loving Father, because in sending Jesus, your Son, to us you showed us how much you love us. He cares for the poor and the hungry. He suffers with the sick and the rejected. Betrayed and forsaken, he did not strike back but overcame hatred with love. On the cross he defeated the power of sin and death. By raising him from the dead you show us the power of your love to bring new life to all your people.

On the night before he gave up his life for us, Jesus, at supper with his friends, took bread, gave thanks to you, broke it, and gave it to them, saying, "Take this, all of you, and eat it: this is my body which is given for you." After supper, Jesus took the cup of wine, said the blessing, gave it to his friends, and said, "Drink this, all of you: this is the cup of my blood, the blood of the new and eternal covenant, which is shed for you and for many, so that sins may be forgiven. Do this in memory of me."

Gracious God, with this bread and wine we celebrate the death and resurrection of Jesus, and we offer ourselves to you in him. Send your Holy Spirit on us and on these gifts, that we may know the presence of Jesus in the breaking of bread, and share in the life of the family of your children.

Father, you call us to be your servants; fill us with the courage and love of Jesus, that all the world may gather in joy at the table of your kingdom. We sing your praise, almighty Father, through Jesus, our Lord, in the power of the Holy Spirit, now and for ever.

At the end of the prayer, all say

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, and the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

BREAK THE BREAD

The Presider breaks the consecrated bread. A period of silence is kept; then the Presider says

We break the bread to share in the body of Christ.

People We, who are many, are one body, for we all share in the one bread.

Please be seated

SHARE THE GIFTS OF GOD

Presider The Gifts of God for the People of God.

The Presider continues

Holy food for holy people.

Everyone eats the bread together and the Presider consumes the wine on behalf of all.

If you are not partaking in the elements of communion, this prayer of spiritual communion may be said.

Gracious God, we love you above all things and are grateful that you are with us. Come spiritually into our hearts, unite our entire selves to you and never permit us to be separated from your presence. Amen.

Please stand

After Communion, the Presider invites the people to join in this prayer

Living God, in this sacrament we have shared in your eternal kingdom. May we forever serve you faithfully, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SONG

The Trees of the Field; No. 710; from Worship and Rejoice

The musical score is written for guitar and voice in a 2/2 time signature with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of six systems of music, each with a vocal line and a guitar accompaniment line. The lyrics are: "You shall go out with joy and be led forth with peace; the mountains and the hills will break forth before you; there'll be shouts of joy, and all the trees of the field will clap, will clap their hands. And all the trees of the field will clap their hands, the trees of the field will clap their hands while you go out with joy." The guitar part includes various chords and techniques such as unison, chords, and a final double bar line with a repeat sign.

GO FORTH

The Presider says this blessing

God be your comfort and strength; God be your hope and support; God be your light and your way; and the blessing of God, Creator, Redeemer and Giver of life, remain with you now and for ever. Amen.

The people are dismissed as follows

Presider Go now to love and serve the Lord. Go in peace.

People Amen. We go in the name of Christ.

A socially distanced fellowship time will occur for those who are attending in person.
