PRESENTATION OF COLORS

MUSIC: "THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER"

words, Francis Scott Key (1779-1843);
music, John Stafford Smith (1750-1836), arr. Oliver Jones (b. 2005)

Oh, say can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Please be seated.

SCRIPTURE LESSON

Ecclesiastes 3: 1-8: Everything Has Its Time

A reading from the Book of Ecclesiastes.

FOR everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven: a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted; a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance; a time to throw away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to throw away; a time to tear, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak; a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.

Reader Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as able.

MUSIC: "GOD BLESS AMERICA"

words and music, Irving Berlin (1888-1989)

God bless America, land that I love,
Stand beside her and guide her
Through the night with a light from above;
From the mountains, to the prairies, to the oceans white with foam,
God bless America, my home sweet home.
God bless America, my home sweet home.

Please be seated.

READING: “IN FLANDERS FIELDS”

Lt. Col. John McCrae (1872-1918)

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

REFLECTION

The Rev. Brian Peterson, Sgt., USMC

Please stand, as able.

MUSIC: “AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL”

words, Katharine Lee Bates (1859-1929);
music, Samuel Augustus Ward (1843-1903)

O beautiful for spacious skies, for amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed His grace on thee
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea!

O beautiful for heroes proved in liberating strife,
Who more than self their country loved and mercy more than life!
America! America! May God thy gold refine,
Till all success be nobleness,
And every gain divine!

Please be seated.

MUSIC: “TAPS”

THE LORD’S PRAYER

OUR Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

THE CLOSING SENTENCES

Officiant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Officiant O Lord, cleanse the thoughts of our hearts.

People And renew a right spirit within us.

ABIDE with us, O searching and chastening Spirit of the living God, for it is evening and the day is far spent. Let the shadow of your presence shelter us from the haste and fret of the day, and grant that when we leave your house we shall not forget your presence. May we rest this night in the assurance of your protecting love, and when we awake may your guiding hand order our lives in the works of your law and in the ways of your commandments, that by your most mighty power we may rejoice in all things to do your will, through Christ our Lord. Amen.

CLOSING MUSIC

“Eternal Father, Strong to Save”

MELITA, 8.8.8.8.8.8;
words, William Whiting (1825-1878);
music, John Bacchus Dykes (1823-1876)

¹ Eternal Father, strong to save, whose arm hath bound the restless wave,
Who bidd'st the mighty ocean deep its own appointed limits keep:
O hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea.

² O Christ, whose voice the waters heard, and hushed their raging at thy word,
Who walkedst on the foaming deep, and calm amid its rage didst sleep:
O hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea.

³ Most Holy Spirit, who didst brood upon the chaos dark and rude,
And bid its angry tumult cease, and give, for wild confusion, peace:
O hear us when we cry to thee for those in peril on the sea.

⁴ O Trinity of love and power, thy children shield in danger's hour;
From rock and tempest, fire and foe, protect them wheresoe'er they go;
Thus evermore shall rise to thee glad hymns of praise from land and sea.

THE BLESSING

Officiant The Lord bless you and keep you. The Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious to you. The Lord lift his countenance upon you and give you peace.
Amen.
