THE PSALM APPOINTED (sung by choir)

Psalm 107: 1-3, 23-32: Confitemini Domino
music, John-Luke Addison (b. 1989)

<sup>1</sup> Give thanks to the Lord, for he is / good, * and his mercy endures for / ever.

<sup>2</sup> Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed pro- / claim: *
that he redeemed them from the hand of the / foe.

<sup>3</sup> He gathered them out of the / lands; *
from the east and from the west, from the north and from the / south.

<sup>23</sup> Some went down to the sea in / ships *
and plied their trade in deep / waters;

<sup>24</sup> They beheld the works of the / Lord, *
and his wonders in the / deep.

<sup>25</sup> Then he spoke, and a stormy wind a- / rose, *
which tossed high the waves of the / sea.

<sup>26</sup> They mounted up to the heavens and fell back to the / depths; *
their hearts melted because of their / peril.

<sup>27</sup> They reeled and staggered like / drunkards * and were at their wits' / end.

<sup>28</sup> Then they cried to the Lord in their / trouble, *
and he delivered them from their dis- / tress.

<sup>29</sup> He stilled the storm to a / whisper *
and quieted the waves of the / sea.

<sup>30</sup> Then were they glad because of the / calm, * and he brought them to the harbor they were / bound for.

<sup>31</sup> Let them give thanks to the Lord for his / mercy *
 and the wonders he does for his / children.

† <sup>32</sup> Let them exalt him in the congregation of the / people * and praise him in the council of the / elders.

THE EPISTLE

2 Corinthians 6: 1-13: The Ministry of Reconciliation

A reading from Paul's second letter to the Corinthians.

AS we work together with Christ, we urge you also not to accept the grace of God in vain. For he says, "At an acceptable time I have listened to you, and on a day of salvation I have helped you."

See, now is the acceptable time; see, now is the day of salvation! We are putting no obstacle in anyone's way, so that no fault may be found with our ministry, but as servants of God we have commended ourselves in every way: through great endurance, in afflictions, hardships, calamities, beatings, imprisonments, riots, labors, sleepless nights, hunger; by purity, knowledge, patience, kindness, holiness of spirit, genuine love, truthful speech, and the power of God; with the weapons of righteousness for the right hand and for the left; in honor and dishonor, in ill repute and good repute. We are treated as impostors, and yet are true; as unknown, and yet are well known; as dying, and see-- we are alive; as punished, and yet not killed; as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing everything.

We have spoken frankly to you Corinthians; our heart is wide open to you. There is no restriction in our affections, but only in yours. In return-- I speak as to children-- open wide your hearts also.

Reader      Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.
People     Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as able, for the Gospel.

THE HOLY GOSPEL

Mark 4: 35-41: Jesus Stills a Storm

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Savior Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

WHEN evening had come, Jesus said to his disciples, “Let us go across to the other side.” And leaving the crowd behind, they took him with them in the boat, just as he was. Other boats were with him. A great windstorm arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already being swamped. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him up and said to him, “Teacher, do you not care that we are perishing?” He woke up and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, “Peace! Be still!” Then the wind ceased, and there was a dead calm. He said to them, “Why are you afraid? Have you still no faith?” And they were filled with great awe and said to one another, “Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?”

Gospeller The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Following the Alleluia, please be seated.

THE SERMON

THE NICENE CREED

Please stand, as able.

WE believe in one God, the Father, the Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ, the only Son of God, eternally begotten of the Father, God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, of one Being with the Father; through him all things were made. For us and for our salvation he came down from heaven, was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary and became truly human. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate; he suffered death and was buried. On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures; he ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church. We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins. We look for the resurrection of the dead, and the life of the world to come. Amen.

We pray for the parish and all the people of St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church during this time of transition. May our hearts be opened to see your will for us, and embrace the paths you would have us travel. We ask for insight, strength, and peace as we continue to live into our mission of "All are welcome, no exceptions."

O God, in your loving purpose, answer our prayers for your creation. By your grace, grant us the will and the wisdom to make this world new, and all for the sake of Jesus Christ our Savior. Amen.

It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Almighty God, Creator of heaven and earth. For by water and the Holy Spirit you have made us a new people in Jesus Christ our Lord, to show forth your glory in all the world.. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

SANCTUS

music, Richard Proulx (1937-2010)

Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow - er and might, heaven and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho -

san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high-est. Ho - san - na in the high-est.

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in Jesus Christ, the Word made flesh. For in these last days you sent Jesus to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In Christ, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In Christ, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

On the night before he died for us, our Savior Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me." After supper Jesus took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command,

People      We remember Christ's death; we proclaim Christ's resurrection; we await Christ's coming in glory.

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Savior of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine. We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us in the sacrifice of Jesus Christ, through whom we are acceptable to you, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where, with Bartholomew and all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your children; through Jesus Christ our Savior, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty God, now and for ever. Amen.

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to pray:

THE LORD'S PRAYER

music, Eric Wyse

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name. Your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heav'n. Give us to-day our dai-ly bread; For-give us our sins, As we for-give those who sin a-gainst us; Save us from the time of trial, and de-li-ver us from e- vil. For the king - dom, the pow - er, and the glo - ry are yours, now and for - ev - er. A - men.

THE BREAKING OF THE BREAD

Celebrant Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People Therefore let us keep the feast.

Celebrant The gifts of God for the people of God.

THIS is the table, not of the Church, but of God. It is made ready for those of us who love God, and for those who want to love God more. So, come, those of us who have much faith, and those who have little; those of us who have been here often, and those who have not been here long; those of us who have tried to follow, and those who have failed. Come, because it is God who invites us; it is God's will that we should meet here.

Please be seated once you receive Communion.
