2021 Sanctuary Lamp Requests

Because of the honor given to Christ's body and blood, a red votive candle, known as the Sanctuary Lamp, is traditionally lit beside the tabernacle to show that it contains the consecrated elements. The Sanctuary Lamp reminds Catholics that Jesus is present in the tabernacle, and we often pray before the tabernacle and reflect on the mystery of Christ's presence in the Eucharist. Consider donating the Sanctuary Lamp in memory of a loved one who has died, to celebrate a special occasion or to honor a living person. The name/occasion will be acknowledged in the Parish communication.

The suggested donation for each Sanctuary Lamp is $5.00.

2021 Altar Flower Donations

Many people have special days in the year which they commemorate.

Flowers on the altar of St. Dominic's Church can fittingly mark and anniversary of a marriage or death, or may be used as an expression of joy of thanksgiving at any time. Anyone may give flowers at St. Dominic's for any Sunday desired. Please remember that there are no flowers on the altar during Lent or Advent. Flower Donations are NOT accepted November 28 through December 28 (Advent/Christmas). Currently, the suggested donation for Altar Flowers is $100.00.

A Letter From Our Pastor

REV. BRIAN PATRICK WOODROW

My Dear Parish Family,

This weekend we celebrate the great feast of Pentecost. The Holy Spirit descended as tongues of flame and the birth of the Church commenced! The Holy Spirit enkindled the fire of love within the Blessed Virgin Mary and within the Apostles who had gathered together and greatly anticipated that the Lord's promise would be fulfilled.

The Apostles, by the power of the Holy Spirit, were transformed into an incredible force that would change the course of history forever. In the book The Spirit of Catholicism the author Karl Adam says, "Twelve simple, uneducated fisherman revolutionized the world, and that with no other instrument than their new faith and their readiness to die for that faith."

We must never forget that we too possess this incredible power that was given to us at our Baptism!

It is so easy to forget that God has given us limitless potential that has yet to be experienced. Within each of us there is a strength that can overcome all weakness, a light that can cast out darkness and the gift of courage that can destroy fear itself. If you feel like that fire has weaned a bit over the years or if you need to renew and rekindle that flame, then I invite you to start with prayerful meditation on the Scriptures themselves. Begin with the book of Isaiah 11:2- 3 and then turn to 1 Corinthians 2 and read on as long as you feel compelled to.

I hope and pray that we all feel a greater sense of renewal in our Faith through the gift of the Holy Spirit this Pentecost weekend!

Please continue to pray for me as I will pray for you.

Magno Cum Gaudio,

Fr. Brian Patrick Woodrow

VENI CREATOR SPIRITUS

Come, Holy Spirit, Creator blest,
and in our souls take up Thy rest;
come with Thy grace and heavenly aid to fill the hearts
which Thou hast made.

O comforter,
to Thee we cry,
O heavenly gift of God Most High, O fount of life and fire of love, and sweet anointing
from above.

Thou in Thy sevenfold gifts are known; Thou, finger of God's hand we own; Thou, promise of the Father, Thou Who dost the tongue with power imbue.

Kindle our sense from above,
and make our hearts o'erflow with love; with patience firm and virtue high the weakness of our flesh supply.

Far from us drive the foe we dread, and grant us Thy peace instead; so shall we not, with Thee for guide, turn from the path of life aside.

Oh, may Thy grace on us bestow
the Father and the Son to know;
and Thee, through endless times confessed, of both the eternal Spirit blest.

Now to the Father and the Son,
Who rose from death, be glory
given, with Thou, O Holy Comforter, henceforth by all in earth and heaven.

Amen.

Eucharistic Adoration

Every Friday immediately following the 10:00 AM Join us for Exposition to adore the true presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament – all are welcome. Come spend some precious quiet time with our Lord in the Chapel and feel free to bring a friend. If you have questions or if you are interested in participating in this prayer opportunity as a regular adorer, please contact Marie Salvato at 732-840-2103.

"Let us take time, in the course of the week, in passing, to go in and spend a moment with the Lord who is so near. This is what is lovely about Catholic churches, that within them there is, as it were, always worship, because the Eucharistic Presence of the Lord Jesus dwells always within them. Without adoration, there is no transformation of the world."

Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

Weekly Intentions for the Sick

Our list of friends and loved ones in need of prayer is growing weekly. If you know of someone on the bulletin list of the sick who has had answered prayer and is doing better please call the parish office at 732-840-1410 ext, 211 and let us know. We would like to know that prayers have been answered and remove them from the list.

"Most merciful Jesus, who are the consolation and salvation of all who put their trust in You, we humbly beseech You, by Your most bitter passion, grant the recovery of health to the sick of our Parish, that with us they may praise and magnify Your holy name. Amen."

Saint Dominic Religious Gift Store Gifts of Faith, Statues, Rosaries, Cards, Books, Jewelry, and More!

Located inside our church lobby and staffed by members of our Rosary Altar Society, our religious gift cases include a thoughtful selection of Catholic literature, religious articles, statues, cards, Rosaries, jewelry, sacramental selection (for Baptism, Holy Communion, Confirmation, Matrimony), and merchandise reflective of a vibrant, diverse, catholic parish. If you don't see what you're looking for in our display, we can get it for you. Unfortunately, due to the pandemic, we remain closed, but you can still purchase items at this time. If you need assistance in choosing a religious book statue or gift of faith, please call Linda Verheyen, Rosary Altar Society President, at 732-920-5352.

Traditional Latin Mass - Altar Servers

- Faith
- Brotherhood
- Challenge
- Leadership

These are four major qualities men and boys, age 12 and up, can develop by signing up to serve the Usus Antiquior (Ancient Use) of The Roman Ritual! Delve deeper into your faith, meet and work with other like-minded individuals, challenge yourself to learn the intricate rubrics of an ancient form of sacrifice and develop strong leadership qualities.

Father Brian Woodrow extends a personal invitation to any young man, aged twelve and older, to become an Altar Server and serve our Lord through this form of the Sacrifice of Mass.

If you are interested in serving as an Altar Server or for more information, please send an email to scheduler@churchofstdominic.com

The Feast of Pentecost

This weekend, the Church celebrates Pentecost, one of the most important feast days of the year that concludes the Easter season and celebrates the beginning of the Church.

The Timing and Origins of Pentecost

Pentecost always occurs 50 days after the death and resurrection of Jesus, and ten days after his ascension into heaven. Because Easter is a moveable feast without a fixed date, and Pentecost depends on the timing of Easter, Pentecost can fall anywhere between May 10 and June 13.

The name of the day itself is derived from the Greek word "pentecoste"; meaning 50th.

What Happens at Pentecost?

In the Christian tradition, Pentecost is the celebration of the person of the Holy Spirit coming upon the Apostles, Mary, and the first followers of Jesus, who were gathered together in the Upper Room.

A "strong, driving" wind filled the room where they were gathered, and tongues of fire came to rest on their heads, allowing them to speak in different languages so that they could understand each other. It was such a strange phenomenon that some people thought the Christians were just drunk - but Peter pointed out that it was only the morning, and said the phenomenon was caused by the Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit also gave the apostles the other gifts and fruits necessary to fulfill the great commission - to go out and preach the Gospel to all nations. It fulfills the New Testament promise from Christ (Luke 24:46-49) that the Apostles would be "clothed with power" before they would be sent out to spread the Gospel.

The Birth of the Church

It was right after Pentecost that Peter, inspired by the Holy Spirit, preached his first homily to Jews and other non-believers, in which he opened the scriptures of the Old Testament, showing how the prophet Joel prophesied events and the coming of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost.

He also told the people that the Jesus they crucified is the Lord and was raised from the dead, which "cut them to the heart." When they asked what they should do, Peter exhorted them to repent of their sins and to be baptized. According to the account in Acts, about 3,000 people were baptized following Peter's sermon.

For this reason, Pentecost is considered the birthday of the Church - Peter, the first Pope, preaches for the first time and converts thousands of new believers. The apostles and believers, for the first time, were united by a common language, and a common zeal and purpose to go and preach the Gospel.

Typically, priests will wear red vestments on Pentecost, symbolic of the burning fire of God's love and the tongues of fire that descended on the apostles.

The Prayer for the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit

O Lord Jesus Christ,
Who, before ascending into heaven, didst promise to send the Holy Ghost to finish Thy work in the souls of Thy Apostles and Disciples, deign to grant the same Holy Spirit to me, that He may perfect in my soul the work of Thy grace and Thy love.

Grant me the Spirit of Wisdom that I may despise the perishable things of this world and aspire only after the things that are eternal, the Spirit of Understanding to enlighten my mind with the light of Thy divine truth, the Spirit of Counsel that I may ever choose the surest way of pleasing God and gaining Heaven, the Spirit of Fortitude that I may bear my cross with Thee, and that I may overcome with courage all the obstacles
that oppose my salvation, the Spirit of Knowledge that I may know God and know myself and grow perfect in the science of the Saints, the Spirit of Piety
that I may find the service of God sweet and amiable, the Spirit of Fear that I may be filled with a loving reverence towards God, and may dread in any way to displease Him.

Mark me, dear Lord, with the sign of Thy true disciples and animate me in all things with Thy Spirit. Amen.

A Special Year to Bear Witness to Family Love

Pope Francis has called for the whole Church to dedicate itself to spiritual, pastoral and cultural initiatives to accompany families in the face of contemporary challenges.

This year of special focus coincides with the fifth anniversary of the Holy Father's exhortation, the Joy of Love (2016). It began on March 19, 2021 and will conclude in June, 2022 with the World Meeting of Families in Rome.

We are pleased to provide the Diocese of Trenton links to various resources for your family.

Prayer for Families

We bless your name, O Lord,
for sending your own incarnate Son,
to become part of a family,
so that, as he lived its life,
he would experience its worries and its joys.

We ask you, Lord,
to protect and watch over this family,
so that in the strength of your grace
its members may enjoy prosperity,
possess the priceless gift of your peace,
and, as the Church alive in the home,
bear witness in this world to your glory.
We ask this thought Christ our Lord.
Amen.

A Prayer for Vocations

O Holy Spirit,
Spirit of wisdom and divine love,
impart Your knowledge,
understanding,
and counsel to youth that they may know the vocation wherein they can best serve God.

Give them courage and strength to follow God's holy will. Guide their uncertain steps, strengthen their resolutions, shield their chastity, fashion their minds, conquer their hearts, and lead them to the vineyards where they will labor in God's holy service.
Amen.

"Pentecost"

BY FR. PIUS PARSCH

Pentecost Sunday marks the end of the very first novena, the nine days of prayer and waiting between the Ascension and the Descent of the Holy Spirit.

Pentecost, with Christmas and Easter, ranks among the great feasts of Christianity. It commemorates not only the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the Apostles and the Blessed Virgin Mary, but also the fruits and effects of that event: the completion of the work of redemption, the fullness of grace for the Church and its children, and the gift of faith for all nations. It is often considered the "Birthday of the Church."

Here's a pertinent excerpt from The Church's Year of Grace [published 1953], by Fr. Pius Parsch (1884-1954).

After Jesus had ascended to heaven from Mount Olivet, the apostles and disciples returned to the Holy City. They remained together in the Upper Room or Cenacle, the place where Jesus had appeared to them and which may well be called the first Christian church. About a hundred and twenty persons were assembled there. They chose Matthias as an apostle in place of the unhappy Judas; they prayed and waited for the Paraclete.

Ten days had passed, it was Sunday, the seventh Sunday after the resurrection. At about nine o'clock in the morning, as they were together praying fervently, the Holy Spirit descended upon them. Note how all the great theophanies in Christ's life occurred during the course of prayer. After His baptism, for instance, when Jesus was praying the heavens opened and the Holy Spirit descended in the form of a dove; likewise, it was during prayer at night that the transfiguration took place on Tabor. Surely too it was while Mary was praying that Gabriel delivered his message, and the Holy Spirit overshadowed her. Pentecost followed precedent. The small community of Christians had prepared themselves through prayer for the coming of the Paraclete. The same is true at Mass every day; through prayer we ready our souls for the advent of the Spirit.

The descent upon the apostles was internal and invisible in nature although accompanied by certain visible phenomena. There came a mighty roar, like the onrush of a violent wind. It came suddenly, from heaven; but unlike storms that strike a structure from without, this one penetrated and filled the room where the disciples were gathered. Therefore it was not a natural wind, it was a miracle peculiar to the occasion. A second visible sign consisted in tongues of fire that descended upon each one present. These fiery tongues gave visible evidence that the Holy Spirit had descended upon them.

At Mass, particularly at Holy Communion, the power of the Holy Spirit comes down upon us; fiery tongues will not be seen, but invisible tongues of fire will not be absent. There was still another external manifestation of the Holy Spirit; the apostles and disciples were enabled to speak various languages.

After the roar of the wind many of Jerusalem's pilgrims hurried to the Cenacle. Pentecost was one of the three festivals which obliged all Jews to be present in Jerusalem. Jews from distant lands, and Jewish converts from paganism too, attended these feasts. As a result, a colorful crowd speaking a variety of languages surrounded the house. Now the apostles, who so shortly before had hid in fear behind locked doors, came forth and courageously walked among the multitude speaking to each in his native tongue. It was indeed amazing! Galileans, and multilingual?

But the malicious too were present; they had the answer. Nothing marvelous at all! Those Galileans were simply drunk, and their drunken babble sounded like a foreign language! Peter showed no hesitation in answering the charge. None of their number, he said, were intoxicated; it was but nine o'clock in the morning, and at that hour men usually are sober. What the multitude saw was, in fact, the fulfillment of Joel's prophecy: In those days (of the Messiah), God will pour forth His Spirit upon men and they will prophesy ... Then the apostle pointed his words more directly against the accusers: they had killed Jesus, had nailed Him to the Cross; but God had awakened Him and after His departure to heaven, He sent the Holy Spirit.

The pilgrims who had heard Peter give this first pentecostal sermon "were pierced to the heart and said: Brethren, what shall we do? But Peter said to them: Repent and be baptized; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit." Three thousand responded.

One final question: why the miracle of tongues? In answer, recall the story regarding the tower of Babel. Puffed up by pride, men attempted to build a tower that would touch the heavens. To punish their sin, God confused their speech. Sin causes confusion and division. Now Christ came to gather all men into His Church and thereby to unite them to Himself. This should result in creating but one family of nations again. To this blessed state the miracle of tongues points.

Yes, even we as individuals have a gift of tongues which all men can understand. It is the gift of love infused into us by the Holy Spirit. Love unites, love is a common language, by means of love we can speak to all nations.
