

FAMILIES FORWARD

DIGNITY • EMPOWERMENT • HOPE

New Board Member Bios

2018-2019

Sherry Benjamins

Sherry Benjamins is founder and owner of her firm, S. Benjamins & Company. She received her BA from California State University, Northridge and her MBA from Pepperdine University. Sherry looks forward to utilizing her skills as a Talent Strategist to guide Families Forward into the future.

Jon Radus

Jon Radus is a Lieutenant and formerly the Public Information Officer with the Fullerton Police Department. Jon received his BA in Business and Organizational Management from University of California, Berkley and brings a unique perspective and first-hand experience in servicing our homeless community through the police department.

Alex Razo

Alex received his BS in Finance from University of Southern California and is currently Senior Vice President at Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. Alexander has a passion for helping others and looks forward to using his experience in the financial sector to assist Families Forward.

Professor David A. Snow

Dr. Snow is a Distinguished Professor of Sociology at University of California, Irvine. Professor Snow received his PhD in Sociology from University of California, Los Angeles and brings his vast research and expertise on economically marginal families and homelessness to the board.

Debbie Thomsen

Debbie received her BS in Business Administration from University of Southern California and brings her experience in real estate finance and commercial real estate to the board. Deborah also serves as a Court Appointed Special Advocate to CASA.

Lori Torres

Lori is the founder and CEO of Parcel Pending. Lori, who received her MBA from Pepperdine University, previously served as Board President for South Coast Apartment Association and brings her results-driven, strategic leadership to Families Forward.