However, there are no changes today, so applicants should continue to submit applications and members should submit their renewals and continue to get access to care.

When the new rules go into effect, we will share that information on our website: www.jeffco.us/4887/Federal-Impact-Updates and on Jefferson County social media accounts.

Thank you for your patience as we prepare more information and await federal guidance on how to implement the new law.
