

BUSINESS EXPLORATION CLUB

FAQ: Frequently Asked Questions

Who can attend Business Exploration Club?

1

Anyone! Business Exploration Club (BEC) is an opportunity for all people interested in exploring local businesses, learning about the purpose of employment, and building life skills. Participants are not required to pursue employment during or after BEC.

Can I expect to have a job by the end of BEC?

2

No. The goal of BEC is to provide participants with the opportunity to explore local businesses, discover personal interests, and build skills. It is not a formal job search, and we will not be filling out job applications. If you decide you would like support finding a job, we can connect you with DDRCC's employment team to discuss your options.

What if I don't want a job?

3

Employment is a personal choice. BEC welcomes anyone interested in learning about local businesses and employment regardless of their desire to pursue employment.

What activities will BEC offer?

4

We will organize a variety of programming options based on participant interest. This will include activities such as touring local businesses, informational interviews with employees/employers, in-house skills workshops, and guest speakers. We are open to new ideas! Come ready to share your thoughts and help shape your own experience.

How do I sign up?

5

If you would like to join BEC, please email employmentfirst@ddrcco.com by November 13th. Our estimated start date is January 12th. We will request plan revisions from case managers before orientation. Reach out to Mick or Sean with any programming questions, or to discuss if BEC would be a good fit for you.
