

Love and Contemplation at Night The Way of St. John of the Cross November Webinar Series

O sweetest love of God, so little known, whoever has found this rich mine is at rest! – St. John of the Cross

In this webinar series, we will hear the story of John of the Cross and explore how he experienced God. We will learn what John has to say about the reason for our misery, the divine encounter, and the spiritual journey through the dark night to union with God.

Then we will discuss John's relevance for today. He speaks to our cultural and political situation of polarization and impasse. He guides us out of the many traps of consumer society. He offers healing for survivors of trauma. And he tells us what to do with extraordinary religious experiences.

The series will have discussions, power point presentations, prayer. Participants will have access to the power point slides, recordings of the sessions, and book recommendations.

If you cannot make any webinar live, you can catch the recording available on demand.
