

Happy Nothingness - October 2020

Join a weekly discussion of the contemplative life, especially, the path of mystical nothingness, letting go, nonduality, and infinite love in imitation of Jesus and as taught by the mystics down through the ages. We explore how one might practice and live contemplation.

Throughout October, we will discuss St. Francis of Assisi as an icon of Gospel nothingness, what the journey to God feels like and the different stages of growth in contemplation, how mystical nothingness can heal and deepen our interpersonal relationships, and in what ways mystical nothingness can help us wade through cynicism, fake news, and the polarization of these contentious times.

TIME: 2:00pm - 3:00pm

DATES: October 4, October 11, October 18, October 25
