

May 5, 2020

Hello everyone,

We are in a new month, and I have scheduled some new Christian Contemplative Spirituality Webinars. I hope you can join me for some or all!

Please note: you can register for any webinar and watch on demand, that is, at your convenience, if you cannot make the webinar live.

Series #1: Happy Nothingness: Christian Contemplative Spirituality - May 2020

- 4 sessions, Wednesdays, 7:30pm - 8:30pm
- May 6, May 13, May 20, May 27
- Starts THIS Wednesday, May 6.

Come for a weekly discussion of all things contemplative, and, especially, how to walk the path of mystical nothingness, letting go, nonduality, and infinite love in imitation of Jesus and as taught by mystics down through the centuries.

Some topics we will discuss in May include: being spiritual in a busy world, when prayer is dry and dead, the evolution of consciousness, and the path of nothingness in scripture and some mystics.

Series #2: Galatians: A Contemplative Commentary

- STARTS: Sunday, May 17
- 6 sessions, Sunday afternoons, 3:30pm - 4:30pm
- May 17, May 24, May 31, June 7, June 14, June 21

In this six week class, we will explore the transformative message of St. Paul in his letter to the Galatians. Some themes include freedom in the Spirit through the cross, being one in Christ, the law versus grace, what to do when religion stops being transformational, and mystical crucifixion. Each week we will dive into one of the six chapters of Galatians. We will reflect on what St. Paul is saying and what it means for us today.

Series #3: Living with Uncertainty

- Friday, May 22, 7:30pm – 9:00pm

We live in an uncertain time. When will the pandemic end? When will things go back to normal? Will life ever be normal again? What about our jobs, our finances? We do not know. Uncertainty abounds. How do we live with this tension? In this webinar we will reflect on these questions in light of the Gospel and the Christian contemplative tradition.
