Biographical Information

Lori Roman is the President of the American Constitutional Rights Union (ACRU), whose mission is to protect the Constitutional rights of Americans. She is also the President of the Ann Children's Fund, which provides hope and help for adoptive families with children with special needs and serious illnesses. Formerly, she was president of the Salt Institute, a trade association for the salt industry; executive director of American Legislative Exchange Council (ALEC); Chief of Staff/Deputy Director of the White House Center for Faith-Based and Community Initiatives of the U.S. Department of Education; Director of School Choice of the U.S. Department of Education; and professor of business and ethics at a private college in Michigan. Mrs. Roman has been regularly featured on radio and television outlets and in magazines and newspapers. She and her husband, Marc, live in Naples, Florida.

Marc Roman is the co-founder of Centurion Intelligence Partners, Inc. CIP provides global intelligence solutions and delivers strategic services and decision support products for corporations, law firms, family offices and ultra high-net-worth individuals, government entities, and NGOs. As President and CEO, he is responsible for the strategic initiatives, mission, and growth strategy of the firm. Marc previously worked at Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) where he worked on a government contract for an independent agency of the United States federal government. Earlier in his career he worked as an options trader on the floor of the American Stock Exchange. Marc attended Carnegie Mellon University, majoring in Managerial Economics, where he was also a member of the men's basketball team.
