Biographical Information

Jake Hoffman is the President and CEO of Rally Forge, one of the nation's top digital communications and media strategy firms, providing services to a broad coalition of top tier clients in the national conservative movement. On behalf of their clients, Rally Forge reaches more than 150 million people every week. Jake also founded Free Markets USA, Inc. and serves on the boards of We The People USA Inc. and, formerly, Proud American Hunter Inc. Additionally, Jake serves as the chairman of the Republican Party of Gilbert & Queen Creek, the largest local Republican Party in Arizona, and on the Education Advisory Council for Congressman Andy Biggs. In 2016, Jake was elected to the Queen Creek City Council. Jake previously served as an elected school board member and as the communications director/spokesman for the Maricopa County GOP where he was instrumental in organizing the first huge Donald J. Trump campaign rally on July 11, 2015.
