

JACKSON COUNTY COMMUNITY OUTREACH

P. O. BOX 746 • COMMERCE, GA 30529
WEBSITE: JCCOSCHOLARSHIPS.ORG

February 8, 2021

PRESSRELEASE

RUSSELL JACKSON ELECTED JCCO VICE PRESIDENT

The Jackson County Community Outreach (JCCO) held it's Election of Officers on February 2nd via teleconferencing during our monthly membership meeting. The Rev. Russell Jackson, JCCO Faith-Based & IT Advisor was elected Vice President for three years. Rev Jackson is employed by the Reed Group as an IT Specialist and he is The Pastor of Maxey Hill Baptist Church in Jefferson, Ga. Rev Jackson joined the JCCO in 2019 as an Executive Board Member and assumed the new position as Faith-Based Advisor. He has previous volunteer experience as a YMCA Youth Coach and a Community Food Outreach Leader. He is married to his talented Wife Belinda and resides in Jefferson.

"Rev. Jackson brings some additional relationship and IT skills to the position, allowing the JCCO to increase our reach and our service to the Community ", states President Jim Scott. "As President, I am excited that he accepted the position to enhance our Mission as our County Community continues to grow", states Scott.

Jim Scott and Ms. Anita Brown Jackson was reelected as JCCO President and JCCO Secretary respectively. Also, we are working on our 2021 Activity Calendar and depending on COVID-19 guidelines may be either Virtual our hopefully a banquet format in the 3rd Quarter 2021. Further details will be forthcoming.

Jim Scott
President