

Anne Arundel County Police Accountability Board

Interest Application Instructions & Questions

The County Executive's Office is seeking individuals to serve on the county's Police Accountability Board (PAB), which is being created in compliance with Maryland state law and must be seated by July 1, 2022. There are three phases to the selection process.

- Phase I is an interest application, which is available now and includes a series of questions that will be used to identify candidates for further consideration.
- Phase II includes a secondary application with specific questions based on Bill 16-22 after it is signed. A subset of candidates who submitted Phase I applications will be invited to complete the Phase II process.
- Phase III will include interviews and final recommendations to the County Executive and County Council.

INSTRUCTIONS

If you are interested in submitting an application, please visit: aacounty.org/PoliceAccountabilityBoard and click on "Apply For Board Membership". You will be asked a series of qualifying questions. If you meet the qualifying criteria, you will automatically see the link to submit your interest application.

Because information is being collected through Google Forms, which does not allow information to be saved and submitted later, please review the questions below in advance and prepare your responses so that the application can be completed in a single session.
