

The Columbia Bank is currently looking for an experienced Senior Customer Service Rep. at its Odenton location

Responsible for the sales of products and services at the branch as well as providing excellent customer service. Operates in a decentralized decision-making environment and exercises assigned lending authority to decision consumer loans. Responsible for entire consumer loan process from interview to closing. Is proficient in Federal Banking Regulations and bank products. Provides sales support and training for less experienced team members in conjunction with the Branch Management team in order to maximize sales opportunities. Assists in the coordination of branch direct mail and telemarketing initiatives.

If interested in applying, please click HERE.