MD COMMERCIAL PACE AND ENERGY EFFICIENCY INCENTIVES TRAINING

Learn about Maryland C-PACE and Efficiency:

Join us to learn more about Maryland's rapidly-growing Commercial PACE program, energy efficiency incentive programs, and other tools to help accelerate energy efficiency and clean energy projects in Maryland's commercial buildings.

Presentations from a variety of speakers will be followed by a networking reception.

Accelerate your business:

Maryland's C-PACE program is allowing commercial, industrial, non-profit and multifamily property owners to finance 100% of their qualifying projects through a structure that enables "day one payback." Combined with leading incentive programs, this structure creates a "win-win" for building owners, contractors, and local development goals. Learn how Greenworks Lending can help fund these projects and your business can benefit.

Who should attend:

Contractors and developers looking to learn how to best leverage state and local C-PACE programs to get more business and close projects quicker.
