Dear Friends,

Soon the High Holiday season will be upon us. To prepare us for the holidays, at Rosh Chodesh Elul – a full month ahead – we begin including blasts of the shofar and a special Psalm in our daily service. But these additions by themselves are not the actual preparation; rather, they remind us that we need to begin the process of atonement (as well as the cooking) that goes into making these days meaningful. Similarly, this annual letter in and of itself does not help us prepare for the holidays – it is your reminder of what you need to do to make sure we all have a meaningful - and logistically smooth - holiday season. Your attention and prompt submission of the forms is especially important in today's security environment.

This packet includes information about and, when necessary, order forms for:

- |  |                               |
|--|-------------------------------|
| 1. Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur Services | 6. Lulav and Etrog for Sukkot |
| 2. Guest Tickets                         | 7. Mahzorim Dedications       |
| 3. Book of Remembrance            | 8. Service Participation      |
| 4. Memorial Plaques                      | 9. Home Hospitality           |
| 5. Shana Tova Greetings                  | 10. College Outreach          |

We have also included information about Women's Network and forms for membership and Torah Fund. Please take time to review all the materials and submit all forms in a timely manner. Watch your email for information about and online registration for Youth Services and Babysitting.

High Holiday tickets and other important holiday information will be mailed by September 19 to all members in good standing and pre-registered guests. If you have any questions about your membership, please contact the Synagogue office.

Please note: Our communal Selichot service is on Saturday, September 21 at Shaare Tefila, 16620 Georgia Avenue, Olney. Join us at 8:30 pm for Havdalah, a program and a dessert reception. The Selichot service begins at 10:00 pm.

On Sunday, October 6, at 10:30 am, Rabbi Israel will join with clergy from other congregations in conducting a Community Memorial Service at Judean Memorial Gardens. Gan Zikaron (Garden of Remembrance) in Clarksburg will also hold memorial services that day at 10:00 am and at 2:30 pm.

Wishing you and your family Shana tova u'metukah - a sweet new year filled with health and prosperity,

Rabbi Marc Israel

August 7, 2019

Dear Women of Tikvat Israel,

It's time to renew your membership in Tikvat Israel's Women's Network or to become a member for the first time! Women's Network connects you to a wonderful network of women committed to learning, supporting one another, enhancing the mitzvot in our lives, and providing support to the Tikvat Israel community and the community-at-large. Please join us in making the Women's Network a strong, vibrant component of Tikvat Israel! Often, we see women at TI but don't know them. The Women's Network creates events so that we can learn, inspire each other, and create lasting connections. There's no better way to get to know other women of all ages who are part of the TI community than through the Women's Network.

We will again have something for everyone this year, including the continuation of the book club, Rosh Chodesh programs, art projects, our 2nd annual Shelly Goldin Shabbat, Take Me Out to the Ballgame, and more. Look for our Women's Network Bookmark at High Holiday services for more information. This year's Torah Fund theme is Chesed, symbolizing the heart of kindness. The word can also be translated as "loving kindness," to convey the deep love that animates Jewish acts of kindness, done without thought of reward.

Join us for our first book club discussion on September 18th at 7:45 pm in the Flax Library. We will be discussing the book The Gallery of Vanished Husbands, by Natasha Solomons.

We are designing programs this year to engage women of all ages and to work with the other TI committees that support education, community service, and more. Our Sisterhood is truly a Women's Network that provides opportunities for women to get to know each other in our wonderful TI community. We hope you will join us this coming year so that we can continue to grow and contribute.

You can be a member for only $36 a year, which supports our Women's Network and the Women's League for Conservative Judaism (WLCJ). We also are offering a Sponsor Membership Level of $54, which further supports costs associated with our many activities. We hope you will join. We also hope that you'll support the Torah Fund, which supports religious education. For membership, please mail your check and registration form to Brenda Brooks, Treasurer, by October 11, 2019. (See specifics on the attached application.) If you are a new member of Tikvat Israel, you will receive FREE membership in the Women's Network this year. Just fill out the enclosed form and indicate that you are a new member. To contribute to the Torah Fund, please complete the form and send it with your check to Susan Apter, Torah Fund Chairperson.

Even if you can't attend all our programs, please support the Women's Network by sending in your dues. We would like to keep most of our programs free or at minimal cost to members, so your support is important. The benefits of membership, as stated on the WLCJ website, are to be informed, be enriched, be involved, and be inspired. Now is the time to support those efforts for yourself and your "sisters" at Tikvat Israel by joining the Women's Network. We look forward to a wonderful year together! Thanks so much for your support.

B'Shalom,

Janice, Brenda, & Susan

Home Hospitality for the High Holidays 5780 / 2019

The mitzvah of hachnasat orchim (hospitality) is as old as Abraham and Sarah. They stood out, not only as people of faith, but also as the best examples of chesed (loving kindness).

Guests who share our joy at Shabbat or during holidays also share with us their spirit (neshama) and enrich our celebrations with their company. They give us the opportunity to share a mitzvah.

As Rosh Hashanah approaches, might you have room at your dinner table for one or more additional guests? Or do you need a place to go for the evening Yom Tov meals on Sunday, September 29, or Monday, September 30, or for break fast after the completion of Yom Kippur services on Wednesday, October 9?

Please fill out this form by September 23, 2019, and return it to the office. Alternatively, you may contact our Hospitality Coordinator Hope Levy Kott directly at (301) 921-8268 or hkott@aol.com.

Do You Have a Student(s) in College?

If so, the Tikvat Israel College Outreach program would like to keep in touch with them during the school year. And, what better way than with a package full of food, supplies and other goodies?

We will be mailing out packages to coincide with Jewish holidays and significant times during the upcoming fall and spring semesters.

To sign up your student, all we need is:

- His or her name
- College name
- Year (e.g., freshman, sophomore, junior, senior, graduate student)
- His or her complete mailing address
- Parent name, address, and contact information (email or phone)

Please email the requested information to college@tikvatisrael.org by September 13, 2019.

Please note: This program is for children of synagogue members. We can only mail to U.S. addresses. If you would like to mail assembled packages out of the country, please contact us.

Please notify us if there is a change of address during the year or if the student will not be at the above address for one of the semesters! Thank you!

Questions or Ideas?

We'd like to hear from you. Please contact:

Nancy Matheson, nskmatheson@gmail.com or

Nancy Solomon, nancypsolomon@verizon.net

We welcome package sponsorships. To donate funds in support of the program, mail a check payable to "Tikvat Israel." Please put "College Outreach Donation" in the notes section.

For in-kind donations (e.g., food, mailing envelopes, school supplies), contact Nancy (either one!) for additional information.

We look forward to keeping your student connected to the TI community during the upcoming school year!
