They Say My Child's Gifted...Now What?

Exploring the Various Gifted Offerings With Dr. Dina Brulles

Wednesday, May 8, 2019

6:00 p.m. - 7:30 p.m.

District Administrative Center - Governing Board Room

Need Help Figuring Out Which Gifted Program is right for your child?

Join Gifted Ed. Director, Dr. Brulles, as she provides an overview of the continuum of gifted services available in PVschools, Preschool through High School, and discusses the differences between public, charter and private school offerings for gifted students. Parents will gain insights into the various program models and pathways to determine which services best fit their children's distinctive needs. Dr. Brulles will also discuss academic needs, such as when to provide acceleration.

Presenter:

Dr. Dina Brulles, in addition to her position as the Director of Gifted Education, is a faculty member at the Mary Lou Fulton Teachers College at Arizona State University where she teaches graduate level coursework in Gifted Education.

Dr. Brulles has recently been selected to serve on the NAGC Board of Directors, and serves on the NAGC's Equity and Diversity Committee, University Network, Special Schools & Programs Committee and Professional Development Committee. Dr. Brulles is past president of the Arizona Association for Gifted and Talented and past vice-president of Supporting Emotional Needs of the Gifted. She currently serves on SENG's Editorial Board and on their Diversity Committee.

Dr. Brulles assists school districts around the state and country in developing gifted education programs and training teachers in the field. She has developed and supervised the Schoolwide Cluster Grouping Model and has become a recognized expert.
