Special Orders

Clients may request a specific design be made. There may be times that variations to the cake have to be made, but you would be notified. These orders need to be made eight weeks in advance.

My business has become successful with consistency, enthusiasm, imagination and passion. I believe in building a business where there needs to be a foundation of consistency in building relationships. Using my creativity and enthusiasm feeds my passion to create and evolve.

I believe if someone uses their talents and gifts to develop their skills, and with the passion that lies within them, they are worthy of becoming a business owner which is priceless.
