Arts on the Hill: *Electric Bonfire

Camden – The first concert in this summer's Arts on the Hill free music series brings the Electric Bonfire four-piece rock band to Beech Hill at 6:30pm on Friday, June 24. Based out of Lincolnville, the band has been together since 2016 and play mostly original songs and compositions steeped in the spirit of psychedelic jam rock, fusion, funk, reggae, Americana...

John Luft- guitar, Mitch Markowitz- guitar, Mike Whitehead- bass, Jason Dean- drums.

Bring a picnic dinner, relax, and enjoy the music and the spectacular view. The evening promises to be a wonderful start to our summer series! All Arts on the Hill performances are free and open to all ages but please leave your dogs at home.

Coastal Mountains Land Trust has worked since 1986 to permanently conserve land to benefit the natural and human communities of the western Penobscot Bay. The Land Trust has protected over 12,000 acres, offering 50 miles of trails for public recreation.

Beech Hill Preserve is a 295-acre conservation property, managed for the complementary purposes of maintaining its scenic beauty, historic value, grassland bird habitat, and organic blueberry production.
