Lincolntonville Edward Jones Branch Office Administrator Qualifies for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Conference

Edward Jones Branch Office Administrator Breanna Pinkham Bebb recently qualified for Edward Jones' Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Conference, which recognizes and celebrates engagement and leadership in diversity, equity and inclusion efforts.

More than 300 attendees will come together in St. Louis this year to recognize inclusive leaders and create a strong sense of belonging for all, fostering an atmosphere in which everyone can feel comfortable bringing their full selves to work. The conference will include interactive panel discussions, presentations, workshops and networking sessions with participants gaining insights, tools and resources to strengthen their DEI acumen.

"At Edward Jones our purpose is to partner for positive impact - to improve the lives of our clients and colleagues, and together, better our communities and society," said Chuck Orban, an Edward Jones principal responsible for Branch Team Performance and Motivation. "This conference is an opportunity for us to recognize leaders who are passionate to act in the pursuit of equity for all."

Attendees - which included financial advisors, branch support members and home-office associates - were invited based on efforts they've undertaken that have demonstrated engagement and leadership in diversity, equity and inclusion.

The conference will be held on Sept. 21st through 23rd.
