JAMES BOWDOIN MURCH
1809–1880

"Ordinary People, Extraordinary Lives: 200 Years of the Murch Family in Belfast"

Belfast Historical Society Program
Abbott Room, Belfast Free Library
Monday, June 23 at 7:00 pm

Dana Murch, local genealogist and historical society member, will present the program which will include stories about the Mayflower; the War of 1812, pump and block making, lawyers and judges and postmasters, Gettysburg, poetry, ice-making, hydro-electric generation, weather keeping, shoe shops, the Pygmy Circus, and World War II.