

Happy August from Wild Miller Farm!

We are harvesting the garden bounty daily and keeping the farm store stocked with beautiful food and delivering beautiful vegetables to our wholesale outlets. The days are busy and full. I have seeded the first plants that will be growing winter greens for us and have started to make garlic braids.

The farm store is open daily from dawn to dusk.

Ayla's Handcraft Corner :)

If you are looking for local beef, pork and chicken, be in touch with our friends at Briggs Farm in Somerville to see what they have to offer.

A wonderful Sunday early afternoon activity is going to the farmers market at Pumpkinvine Farm in Somerville. Try their beautiful goat milk products and other local foods they have to offer.

For friends all over the state of Maine, look into Daybreak Grower Alliance and their CSA. A whole bunch of wonderful farms are a part of Daybreak and their CSA shares get delivered all over the state. We love being a part of DGA and are grateful for all of the wonderful work they are doing to help distribute quality local food for the people of Maine.

Be in touch if you want to become a member of our credit system CSA. We operate our CSA year round. $100 invested brings you $110 credit to use at our farm store. $300 invested brings you $330 credit to use at our farm store. $500 invested brings $550 credit to use at our farm store.

Thank you for caring about where your food comes from and about intentional farming practices. It is an honor to steward this land. Thank you to all of you who have made our farm store a part of your life routine. We strive to help make it easy for our community to eat locally.

May your meals be nourishing for your body and soul-

Sending thoughts for health and wellness to you and your loved ones-

Annalisa & Joel Miller
