

Local Color Welcomes Guest Artist Marguerite Lawler at Fourth Friday Art Walk

Painter Marguerite Lawler presents a new series of landscape oil paintings that reflect her continued exploration of light, memory, and place. Working in oil on panel, Lawler uses shadows and shifting light to evoke a sense of time passing and the emotional tone of familiar spaces. Inspired by locations in Maine, her paintings blend observation with recollection, capturing more than just a view—they suggest how it felt to be there.

Lawler holds a BFA from RISD and an MFA from CUNY. Her work has appeared in Maine Home + Design and is held in collections across the U.S.

The new paintings will be on view at Local Color Gallery from June 22-July 20, with an opening reception at Belfast's Fourth Friday Art Walk on June 27, 4-7 pm. Lawler will give an Artist Talk at 5:30 pm. Local Color is located at 135 High Street in Belfast, and is open from 11 to 5 Tuesday through Saturday and from 11 to 4 on Sunday.
