

The Rev. Barbara Briggs preached to a full church on Sunday, April 3rd - her first Sunday at St. Margaret's Episcopal Church, Belfast. There were many smiling and happy faces – including hers!

Barbara most recently served as an Associate Priest in Bala Cynwyd, PA, while her husband, the Rev. Paul Briggs, served as an interim priest in a parish. She has served parishes as a full time and part time rector, and will be serving at St. Margaret's in a three-quarter time capacity. Barbara is a prayer leader that has supported parishes with offering a foundation for vision building, spiritual formation, pastoral care, as well as developing strong lay ministries. Music, community outreach, social justice and taking care of God's creation are also important aspects of her ministry. Barbara is originally from Massachusetts and Paul is a Maine native.

For more information and worship times go to www.stmargaretsbelfast.org