

HAPPY THANKSGIVING WEEK FROM WILD MILLER FARM!

Happy Thanksgiving Week!

Our fall harvest is wrapped up and we have a good supply of fall storage veggies for you as well as leeks, kale, and spinach. We just got in some sweet potatoes grown by our friends at Dig Deep Farm in South China, Maine. All the vegetables in our farm store are MOFGA Certified Organic. We have a good supply of grass-fed ground beef and beef soup bones and beef short ribs for as long as they last. Joel has been tackling the task of replacing the south sill of our house and a door that needed replacing. He is now starting on the building of a new porch for us. Gratitude has been a big part of the last couple of years. We are grateful to be able to care for our house at this time and replace old crummy wood with fresh strong wood and build a home, farm, and community that is based on health, strength, and gratitude. Thank you for being a part of our growing community. We would love to think of some of our vegetables being a part of your Thanksgiving meals.

Wild Miller Farm store is open daily, dawn to dusk. Beautiful, local food available for you every day. :) If you need to swing by after dark because of work schedules, just send me a note via text at 603-988-4658 and I can leave the store light on for you. :)

Parsnips!

We have much to be thankful for, including the love and support our families have given us on this life journey we are on. Here is a picture of my parents, Chuck and Laurel Cox, that I re-found recently. I am thankful for them.
