

January 27, 2022
For Immediate Release
Belfast Free Library
Re: Winter Adventure Series

The Come Boating! Winter Adventure Series continues Tuesday February 15th, 6:30 pm with “A Passion for Ocean Adventure” a virtual presentation by Larry Rosenfeld, Executive Director of Team Adventure Education Foundation.

The program is co-sponsored by the Belfast Free Library. To register for the Zoom link go to belfastlibrary.org/virtual-programs.

Larry Rosenfeld is a sailor, adventurer and entrepreneur. He and Cam Lewis created Team Adventure, the 110 ft Max Catamaran they raced around the world in The Race in 2001. Larry has also set world records across the Pacific Ocean on 110 ft French Trimaran Geronimo, sailed with Skip Novak on Pelagic to Antarctica with his wife and two sons age 8 and 10 at the time, and later retraced Shackleton's journey across South Georgia Island in 2013. He will share some pictures, stories and reflections of his love for ocean adventures.

Next in the Winter Adventure Series on Tuesday March 15th JB Turner will give a presentation on “The History of Front Street Shipyard.”

For more information about Come Boating! Belfast's Community Boating Organization, visit comeboating.org.

Larry Rosenfeld at Cape Horn

Racing the Team Adventure Catamaran