

Announcement/Press Release
Belfast Chamber
Submitted by: Holly Haining
02/14/2022

Waldoboro Attorney Andrew J. Zulieve leaves central Maine Law Firm

As of February 1, 2022, attorney Andrew Zulieve has resumed, Zulieve Law, LLC, following a 3-year hiatus as partner and then of-counsel with a prestigious central Maine firm. This change will allow him to focus solely on intellectual property and consumer law, by providing high quality representation to the businesses and residents of the Midcoast areas and beyond. His thirty years of experience and expertise has drawn clients located in England, Lithuania, Sweden and throughout the U.S. The structure of his current practice is specifically aimed at expanding his international client base throughout Europe, Asia and other countries.

Zulieve has served as president of the Lincoln County Bar Association from 2011 - 2018, is currently leader of the Intellectual Property Law Section of the Maine Bar Association and participates in Lawyers for the Arts and the MBA Lawyer Referral Service through the Maine Bar Association. Sensitive and dedicated to his client's needs, he believes that effective representation is achieved through strict adherence to detail and preparation combined with the highest standards of ethics and professionalism.

Zulieve Law is located at 689 Friendship Rd. Monday – Regular business and after hours appointments are available by appointment only. He and his wife and paralegal Holly are happy to also work with clients via video conference, email, and telephone. Inquires please contact Holly by email: holly@zulivelaw.com or by calling 207-790-2185.