Opening Prayer (Unison; Prayer by Janet Dorer)

Gracious Father, you know the thoughts and prayers that we have on our hearts during this difficult and stressful time in our lives. You alone know when the strife will be over. But, you are a loving and forgiving God, so we ask you to be the compass for us as you steer us in the right direction - the right way, the compassionate way, the patient way. Forgive our attitudes and actions. Help us to love as you love us, to trust you and to know you more deeply. Give us wisdom, understanding and knowledge and help us overcome evil with good, for only you can change our hearts and replace hatred and indifference with love and compassion. We humble ourselves before you and ask you to come heal our land. Bless us, now and always, with softened hearts as we go forward together to explore ways to be more like your Son, Jesus Christ our LORD, in whose name we pray. Amen

Guide Me, O Thou Great Jehovah

Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah, pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty, hold me with thy pow'rful hand.
Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more; Feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain, whence the healing stream doth flow;
Let the fire and cloudy pillar lead me all my journey through.
Strong Deliv'rer, strong Deliv'rer,
Be thou still my Strength and Shield;
Be thou still my Strength and Shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan, bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death and hell's destruction, land me safe on Canaan's side.
Songs of praises, songs of praises,
I will ever give to thee; I will ever give to thee.
