

COVID-19

CRITICAL INFRASTRUCTURE WORKER

The bearer of this document as identified below is a critical infrastructure worker engaged in the production of our nation's food supply and is deemed essential for the continued welfare of our state and nation and shall be permitted to continue performance of their critical job function in accordance with Executive Orders issued by Gov. Roy Cooper and pursuant to U.S. Department of Homeland Security and N.C. Department of Agriculture guidance issued on March 19 and March 25, 2020.

Essential critical infrastructure employees, specifically those involved in all facets of livestock agriculture, are exempt from curfews, shelter in place orders, and other such restrictions while in the act of reporting to, returning from or performing their job duties, and in keeping with further law enforcement directives.

NAME and TITLE

BUSINESS/FARM

The bearer may present as further verification a company ID card, payroll stub, letterhead or other employment document.