Acknowledgements

Many thanks to the Heilbrun Selection Committee and the EUEC Awards & Honors Committee for your time, commitment, and support in ensuring the success of this celebratory event.

The Heilbrun Distinguished Fellowship

Named in honor of Alfred B. Heilbrun, Jr., Professor of Psychology, Emeritus, and funded through a generous gift from his family, the Fellowship offers emeritus faculty in the Arts and Sciences an opportunity for heightened engagement in active research and scholarship. Up to two fellowships are offered annually, each for a twelve-month term that follows the academic calendar.

Applications are solicited by the Dean of the College of Arts and Sciences in the spring.

2019 Heilbrun Distinguished Award Recipients:

Oded Borowski

Professor Emeritus of Biblical Archaeology and Hebrew

Kristin Mann

Professor Emerita
of History

About the Distinguished Faculty Awards

The Distinguished Faculty Award recipient is one who has made significant professional contributions since retirement to Emory, its affiliates, and/or communities and professional organizations that reflect the spirit of Emory.

The EUEC Awards and Honors Committee evaluates nominations for the awards. Nominations are normally solicited in early spring.
