

Testing for the Seal of Biliteracy

This is for high school seniors who are interested in earning the Seal of Biliteracy.
There is no fee for testing.

Saturday, October 20, 2018

9:00am -11:30am at BMHS and NHS
Students need to bring identification.

Language proficiencies that will be assessed by the Assessment of Performance toward Proficiency in Languages (AAPPL) exam:

Arabic, American Sign Language, Chinese, French, German, Hindi, Italian, Japanese, Korean, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Thai

Language proficiency that will be assessed by the Latin Interpretive Reading Assessment (ALIRA): Latin

Students who are proficient in languages other than those listed here, and would like to earn the Seal of Biliteracy, will be contacted directly to set up days/times for alternative testing arrangements.

If interested in taking the test, please sign up with your World Language or ELL teacher by Friday, October 5th. Questions? Contact Dr. Galambos at BMHS or Señor Arango at NHS.