Mirna and Leonor continue to do an outstanding job with the Learning Center program and are excited to share with you the many activities and good things happening in Nicaragua.

In 2008 Estela began the Learning Center-Sagrado Corazon de Jesus in San Benito, Managua and has been an outstanding volunteer ever since.

"We all need to come to these meetings to exchange knowledge and support. We have 10 years of being together and we are grateful for everything that the sewing machines and materials allow us to create. At the beginning I came and went with the materials, to do the sewing class, and now the children also create the beautiful handcrafts." - Sra Estela
