

You Can't Take It With You

Lovejoy High School Theatre is thrilled to welcome back the beloved classic, You Can't Take It With You! This show will be presented September 26 and 28, 2019 at 7 pm.

You Can't Take It With You is, at its heart, a reflection on life where it's okay to be yourself. Despite seeming mad to the outside world, the Sycamore household is all about being who you are and having fun while doing it. For them it's all about making sparks fly, literally.

Alice Sycamore (Freshman, Brindley Eaton) and Tony Kirby (Senior, Bryce Fuller) are head over heels for each other. For these lovebirds everything in their world is perfect, but the one thing Alice is terrified of is Tony meeting her eccentric family.

The Sycamore's are quite the odd bunch. Penny Sycamore (Senior, Claire McLaren) is an aspiring playwright who can never seem to finish a script she's started, and her husband Paul Sycamore (Junior, Jack Marsden) may or may not mass produce fireworks in their basement with his "co-worker" Mr. DePinna (Senior, Zach Joyner). Essie (Senior, Elle Mendelson) is a dedicated ballerina who is always ready to give a performance, and her right-hand man and husband Ed (Sophomore, Peyton Nicholson) is not only a composer for her performances, but also illegally releases newspapers.

The patriarch of this eclectic family is grandpa Martin Vanderhof (Junior, Nathan York), a man who one day decided to quit his job to enjoy his life, and along the way unintentionally committed tax fraud. Living with this odd bunch is their kind housekeeper Rheba (Freshman, Sadie Mower), and close family friend Donald (Senior, Cy Faegin). Tony's family, however, is quite the contrast.

Mr. Kirby (Senior, Joey Chavez) is a straight-laced, black and white businessman. His wife, Mrs. Kirby (Freshman, Ellis Smith), not only has an interesting hobby, but also quite unhappy with her marriage with Mr. Kirby. All their secrets get unleashed when they go to dine with the Sycamore's on one very, very wrong night.

Tickets are $9 for students, seniors, and staff and $12 for adults.
