Laurie Lewis: fiddler, guitarist, singer, songwriter, and Grammy-winner.

www.laurielewis.com Since her debut in 1986, Laurie has recorded over 20 albums. She's been a founding member of the Good Ol' Persons and the Grant Street String Band and twice voted IBMA's Female Vocalist of the Year. Her classic rendition of Kate Long's song, "Who Will Watch the Home Place?" won International Bluegrass Song of the Year. Listen and practice so we can join in on the chorus.
