

2017 Fall

Infant Toddler Conference

Celebrating Infants and Toddlers with Respect

Friday, November 17th 8:30 am-1:15pm

St. Ann's Peas & Karrots, 25 Eastern Avenue, Ossining, New York

Keynote Address—Lorri Sullivan

It's You and Me Baby:

How Relationships Impact Infants, Toddlers and Caregivers

Ms. Sullivan is the Assistant Director for Curriculum and Training at the Center for Autism & Early Childhood Mental Health at Montclair State University. Lori is an Early Childhood Special Educator and board member of the New Jersey Association for Infant Mental Health and the Coalition of Infant Toddler Educators.

All of us who form relationships with infants and toddlers contribute to who they become and how they view their world. How do our relationships with infants and toddlers impacts their development? What do we need to be aware about ourselves in our caregiving work with infants and toddlers?

Receive 3.5 hours of training including the keynote and 1 workshop.

Breakfast and registration from 8:30—9:00 am

Space is limited. Please register early.

Sessions 11:15 am—1:15 pm
Please indicate a first and second choice.

Session A: Challenging Behaviors: What's My Piece in the Puzzle

Presenter: Lorri Sullivan, Early Childhood Special Educator

Consider how we can use our relationships with infants and toddlers to understand and make sense of their behaviors. We will also explore how we interpret each experience challenging behaviors differently based on our personalities, histories and experiences.

Session B: For Directors: Strategies to Achieve and Sustain Change with Staff

Presenter: Carol Robinson, Executive Education Director, Greyston Learning Center

Learn strategies to achieve and sustain change. Explore the three building blocks of reflective supervision. Develop a plan to change by using positive psychology.

Session C: How Infants and Toddlers Learn Best

Presenter: Debbie Silver, Child Care Resources of Rockland

What is active learning for infants and toddlers? What are the ingredients that make up active learning? How can adults support the active learning of the children in their program. Answer these questions and more in this interactive workshop.

Session D: Understanding and Responding to Infant Cues

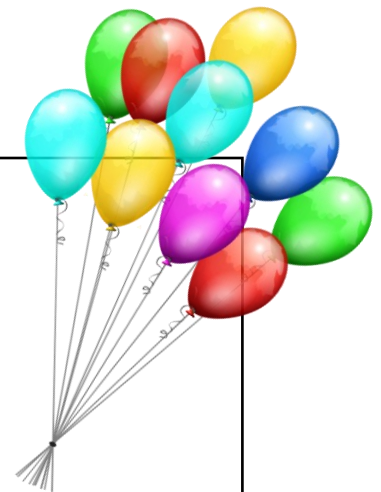

Presenter: Jeanette Sawyer Cohen, PhD

Infants and Toddlers feel secure and understood when their non-verbal cues are noticed, read accurately, and responded to sensitively. In this engaging workshop, you will practice reading cues and further your appreciation for the role of observation in responsive care.

Session E: Being a Peaceful Teacher in a Strong Willed Toddler Classroom

Presenter: Angela Bayer-Persico, Little Angels Child Development

Learn strategies and steps to help smooth the daily conflicts strong willed toddlers exhibit. Learn how to foster a calmer perspective and healthier relationships with the children in your care.
