

The Words of Institution

The service of holy communion is a celebration of the presence of God and Christ among us and a feast of bounty for all. In this place, all are welcome to partake. You will be directed, row by row, to come forward. The server will place the bread in your open palms. Gluten free wafers are available. You are invited to take your own cup.

The Communion Anthem

How Sweet the Sound

arr. Samuel Adler

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a soul like me! I once was lost, but now am found, was blind, but now I see. 'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved; how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed. When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we first begun.

An early American Melody, text by John Newton (1725-1807)

LAAST UNS ERFREUEN

Praise God from whom all blessings flow,
Praise Christ, all creatures here below. Alleluia! Alleluia!
Praise Holy Spirit, Comforter,
One God Triune, whom we adore. Alleluia! Alleluia!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Amen.

The Worship of God

The Sixth Sunday of Easter

May 5, 2024

Welcome to our service at Northminster Church. We believe that true worship is an active experience for each worshipper. As we become aware of the presence of those seated near us let us enter into the realization that this hour provides us with an opportunity to encounter the Holy. At this time, please silence all electronic devices. Then, please sign and pass the attendance register on the inside aisle of each row so we can know of your presence with us.

The Call to Worship

Rev. Hankamer

One: Sometimes worship is a parade, a celebration,
Many: a gathering of people expressing their joy.
One: Sometimes worship is an adventure, a quest,
Many: a gathering of people searching for meaning.
One: Sometimes worship is a funeral, a fast,
Many: a gathering of people seeking comfort for their grief.
One: Among us today are people who have come to march,
Many: people who have come to search,
One: people who have come to weep...
Many: Yet we have all come to acknowledge God
One: and to be in community with each other.
Many: We come with open minds, open hearts, and open arms;
One: that we might all find that for which we have come.
Many: And that we might all be surprised by God.

The Sermon

Rev. Hankamer

The Anthem

There is a Balm in Gilead

Traditional, arr. D.H. Clark

There is a Balm in Gilead to make the wounded whole, to heal the sin-sick soul. Sometimes I feel discouraged and think my works in vain, and then the Holy Spirit revives my soul again. If you can’t preach like Peter, if you can’t pray like Paul, just go and tell your neighbor, “Christ died to save us all!” When you feel discouraged, know Jesus is your friend and when your soul is burdened, a balm he’ll send.

Dedicating Gifts to God

The Offertory is a time of personal devotion and reflection on the day’s teaching, and an opportunity to present silently before God what we can give of ourselves. Monetary gifts, which are an important part of our worship and commitment to our church, may be made privately in the offering plate located in the aisle at the back of the sanctuary or via PayPal by scanning the QR Code found on the insert.
