The Worship of God

The Third Sunday in Lent
March 23, 2025

Welcome to our service at Northminster Church. We believe that true worship is an active experience for each worshipper. As we become aware of the presence of those seated near us let us enter into the realization that this hour provides us with an opportunity to encounter the Holy. At this time, please silence all electronic devices. Then, please sign and pass the attendance register on the inside aisle of each row so we can know of your presence with us.

The Prayer of Confession

Holy God, there are days when we fail to rest. We stretch ourselves too thin. We say "yes" to every invitation. We run a million miles a minute. We ignore your command to rest. There are also days when we fail to act. We wait for someone else. We take the easy road. We find excuses and justify our inaction. God, forgive our imbalance. Remind us that birds rest, and they also fly. Show us how to do the same. Amen.

The Words of Forgiveness

One: Family of faith, I have good news! Our God does not keep score. Our God does not hold grudges. Our God does not assume the worst about us. No, our God offers grace, and endless second chances, and boundless joy. So, join me in proclaiming the good news of the gospel:
Many: God's grace is deeper than the ocean. God's love is wider than the sky. We are seen. We are claimed. We are forgiven. May this realization change and inspire us. Thanks be to God, Amen!

The Anthem

And Can It Be?

PLEW, by Dan Forrest

And can it be? Amazing love, how can it be? Amazing love, so vast, so free; so freely shared for all humanity. Love flowed before creation's dawn, the love by which God's plan was drawn. Christ came to us, Incarnate Love, to share with all God's matchless grace, so freely given for every soul, without regard to clan or race, such wondrous grace! Infinite grace so freely shared for you and for me. Then for God's boundless love sing praise through endless ages, countless days! By love we have been reconciled, new life is ours through God's own child. O Love, how vast, how flowing free, the love which Christ has shown to you and me. Amazing love, how can it be that love which Christ has shown to you and me? Amazing love!

Text by D.H. Clark, based on a hymn by Charles Wesley and a 15th century Latin hymn

Dedicating Gifts to God

The Offertory is a time of personal devotion and reflection on the day's teaching, and an opportunity to present silently before God what we can give of ourselves. Monetary gifts, which are an important part of our worship and commitment to our church, may be made privately in the offering plate located in the aisle at the back of the sanctuary or via PayPal by scanning the QR Code found on the insert.
