

VALENTINE'S POTLUCK

Taking our lead from the once-a-month Spirit Now Potluck service, for February the GSP Spirit Players' First Friday Play Reading is a "Valentine's Potluck" on February 5 at 7:00 p.m. We will gather to read original poetry and plays, a recent Broadway one-act, classic poetry and a little bit of Shakespeare, all with love at the center of the writing. Love in various forms: romantic, scorned, playful, undiscovered, and fantastical. There are still some slots available for folks to submit favorite pieces of theirs, for themselves or others to read.

People who wish to submit a piece or read on Feb. 5 should RSVP to Nanalee Raphael by Monday, Feb. 1. The evening can then be arranged and assignment of parts be based on the folks who've shown interest in reading.

As usual, the evening begins at 7:00 pm via Zoom and will finish at 8:30. Everyone is encouraged to participate as readers or audience.

To RSVP, email Nanalee; contact information is in the Parish Directory. All readings this evening will be suitable for humans 16+ years of age. You can request a small part if you wish to read; roles vary in size from one liners to major characters. Everyone is encouraged to participate as readers or audience. Scripts will be emailed to all participants – readers and audience - by the Thursday before the reading.. Below is the information to access the Zoom play readings online as well as via phone. We will finish by 8: 30 PM. Hope to see you there!
