

Reading with the Spirit: If God Is Love: Rediscovering Grace in an Ungracious World by Philip Gulley & James Mulholland

Saturday, November 23 at 10:00 am in the Bloom Room

If God is love, why are so many Christians fearful, and why do so many church leaders sound hateful? Two controversial pastors address issues the church won't face, calling us to restore grace as the center of the Christian life. Gulley and Mulholland argue that what we believe is crucial and dramatically affects the way we live and interact in the world. Beliefs have power. The authors present a new vision for our personal, religious, and corporate lives, exploring what our world would be like if we based our existence on the foundational truth that God loves every person. "Warm, gentle, profound, and moving..." —John Shelby Spong, author of A New Christianity for a New World

Join us for this book group that meets on the fourth Saturday of each month and focuses on reading that aims to stretch our spiritual and theological muscles. Bring your coffee. All are welcome!
