

FIRST FRIDAY PLAY READING FOR JULY

The GSP First Friday Zoom Play Readings continue on Friday, July 3 at 7 PM with a series of short plays by American playwrights, in honor of the Fourth of July holiday. Authors include Edna Ferber ("Sun Dried"), Willa Cather ("The Sculptor's Funeral"), Thornton Wilder ("The Marriage We Deplore"), and several more contemporary playwrights. Should you be skeptical of conducting play readings via Zoom, it turns out to be a format that works quite well. June's reading went beautifully - ok, a couple of technical snags - but overall it was successful.

People who wish to read on July 3 should RSVP to Nanalee Raphael (infinitynleerco@gmail.com) by the Tuesday before the reading, June 30. Then assignment of parts will be done based on the folks who've shown interest in reading. You can request a small part if you wish; roles vary in size from one liners to major characters. Everyone is encouraged to participate as readers or audience. All plays will be suitable for all age persons. Scripts will be emailed to all participants – readers and audience - on the Wednesday before the reading, July 1. Below is the information to access the Zoom play readings online as well as via phone. Several people called in for the first reading successfully. We will finish by 8: 30 PM. Hope to see you there!
