

Between the Lines: Scholarship & Depth Psychology Meet Sunday's Lectionary

Every Thursday at 10:00 in the Bloom Room

NOTE: This group is on hiatus until Sept 19

Between September 19 and October 10, this long running Thursday group will read and discuss John Spong's Unbelievable: Why Neither Ancient Creeds Nor the Reformation Can Produce a Living Faith Today. Fr Richard Mallory will return on October 17 to resume the usual lectionary Bible study on Thursday mornings. Besides providing a solid approach to biblical studies in general, this class also offers a depth psychological take on the passage at hand. We encourage you to attend a meeting to get a taste of the class and to help you decide if this group is for you. No registration is necessary.

Fr Richard Mallory is the Associate Rector at Grace St Paul's.
