

Jordan Peterson and Christianity

Sunday, September 23 at 11:45 am in the Bloom Room

Jordan Peterson is a psychologist, writer, and lecturer who has emerged as a controversial though arguably strong voice in the contemporary culture debate. This class will explore Peterson's views on religion in general and Christianity in particular, along with the debate those views have engendered, through his lectures, interviews, and panel discussions. The facilitator will assemble pertinent video clips and lead a conversation.

Presenter Anton Faynberg is an itinerant scholar, part-time philosopher, half-time musician, full-time jester. His interests include literature, poetry, music, and religion. He loves the warmth.
