The School of Acrobatics and New Circus Arts (SANCA) https://sancaseattle.org/ is looking for board members with expertise in law, real estate, marketing, finance, development. Experience in non-profit Arts organizations is a bonus.

Established in 2004, SANCA serves youth and families with a highly innovative array of circus arts programs. Our mission is to improve the mental, emotional, and physical health of children of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities by engaging them in the joyous creativity of acrobatics and circus arts. Tax-deductible contributions make it possible for SANCA to provide scholarships for youth with financial challenges, and support our outreach program for underserved youth and youth performance troupes.

As a member of the SANCA Board of Directors, you would be expected to participate in the following:

- Hire and supervise Executive Director
- Determine strategic direction
- Adopt and oversee financial management policies
- Work with Executive Director to ensure activities are in line with our mission
- Attend SANCA events: BoD meetings, fundraising, performances, and
- Participate in fundraising

If you embrace our mission, vision, and values (https://sancaseattle.org/about/) and are interested in becoming a SANCA Board member, please contact board@sancaseattle.org