

Collaboration Business Consulting inspires, educates and empowers proactive individuals and companies to reach breakthrough performance. The team, led by Founder and Managing Partner Michael Gunther, nurtures and grows established multi-million dollar businesses to achieve even greater outcomes through our results-oriented education and consulting services. Custom strategy development created in partnership with our knowledgeable team leads our clients to an increase in sales, reduction in costs and leadership accountability -- all with the goal of creating a profitable, sustainable and empowered business.

With Collaboration's guidance, our clients learn how to transform their leadership style, build collaborative relationships among their teams and grow their bottom line. We invite all Santa Barbara-area business leaders to join our Meet & Mingle business education event on Tues., Apr. 11, 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at workzones, 351 Paseo Nuevo, 2nd Fl., Santa Barbara. The event is free and will offer insight into how to achieve your breakthrough performance.
